

Lake Tahoe Community College's Writers' Series presents

An Evening with...

Li Miao Lovett

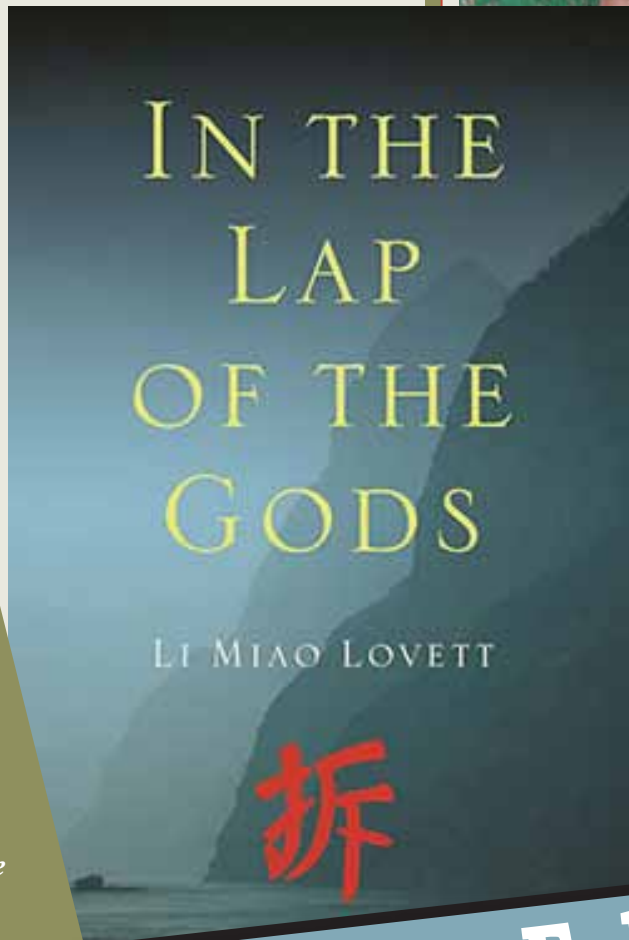

Maxine Hong Kingston calls it
*"An important book,
a moving farewell
to the old, more humane way of life."*

This is a large story,
based on real events,
about farmers who rise
up against the Chinese government when they're kicked off the land.

"Lovett's complex tale of displacement and hardship, contrasting modern China with its past, highlights the human spirit's capacity for renewal."

~ Publishers Weekly

*A massive dam rises, a million lives are thrown into turmoil...and a widower saves
an abandoned
baby girl from the Yangtze.*

Published by Leapfrog Press,
November 2010

Thursday, February 9
7:00 p.m. - LTCC Aspen Room

FREE & open to LTCC students and the community

Books will be available for purchase.

This event is sponsored by Poets and Writers, Inc. through a grant it has received from The James Irvine Foundation.

